German Whig Rally.

Under ordinary circumstances, we should obto meetings of Germans or any other class Adopted Citizens in support of any one politica party. When we come to questions of Hon politics, we are not properly Native nor Adopted Citizens, Yankees, Germans, Irish nor Welsh, but all Americans and nothing else. There ought never to be a question, whether in nominating or ting, as to where a man was born, or wheth he is a citizen by birth or by naturalization, bu characterize us all. Yet so incessant, so un scrupulous, so successful, have been the exertions of the Loco-Foco party to commend itself to the patent right to their votes, that we rejoice at the monstrations on every side that delusions long cherished are now vanishing, and that the time at hand when our fellow-citizens of German, Irish or other European birth, will be united and blended with both the great parties as Native citizens are—each voter judging for himself, acting upon his own convictions of public duty, and keeping his mind unbiased, his judgment unclouded, untiupon a fair comparison of the acts of the tw great parties, he shall have determined which them has best entitled itself to his approba tion and support. As a means to this great end it is desirable that those Adopted Citizens wh are determined to be duped no longer by the mer words Democratic and Democracy into voting for Slavery and other gross evils-for injurious meas es and unworthy men-should make their res lation manifest, in evidence of the progress Truth and as an encouragement to others to follow them in the same noble path. And since German newspapers, German speakers, German office re, all directly or indirectly subsidized out of the National Treasury, are busily at work dissemmating slanders against the Whig party, accusing falsity of these charges to proclaim it as widely as cossible, and thus increase the number of the Adopted Citizens who have resolved henceforth to look beyond names to things, and to disregard Party in their devotion to their chosen Country.

report it: it were as easy to report a concert or an oners. The numbers the spirit, the outhusiass were the best of it, and these cannot be transferred to paper. J. Bron presided, with Cn. SWARZWALD ROSENTHAL, PHILIP HEISE, GEO. STALL and GEO. SCHWARTZ as Vice-Presidents, and -ROHR as Secretary. Addresses were made in German by Messrs. ROHR, HAUSEN and TRESH MAN, and in English by John Fowler, Jr. H. GREELEY, E. S. JAQUES, and E. DELAFIELD SMITH and resolutions heartily approving the Whig National, State and County nominations were unauimously adopted. With Music, Songs, &c. the meeting was kept up till about 11 o'clock when a torchlight procession was formed to visit various Ward headquarters. Thus closed one of the most inspiriting demonstrations of the campaign.

Beware, Pennsylvania !

Look out. PENNSTIVANIANS:—We hear from sources in which we place confidence that no effort will be left untried by the Whig leaders in this State to colonize the border counties of Pennsylvania with persons to cast fraudulent votes. Money has been raised in this City by thousands to bear the expenses of this infernal scheme.

The True Sun utters the above. Just see how preposterously false and scoundrelly it is: The "border Counties of Pennsylvania" next t this State are Pike, Wayne, Susquehanna, Brad ford, Tioga, McKeau, Potter, Warren, and Erie, every one Loco Foco but Erie, most of them very strongly so; and even in Erie the townships bordering on this State are either Loco-Foco or closely divided. We do not know a single Whig township in the whole distance of three hundred miles, while for at least half the distance the bor der towns of Pennsylvania are from three to ten to one Loco-Foco, with Inspectors, Return Judges. Ac. of that party. The few Whigs who live there shy up and vote and hie home again as meekly as possible. These facts are known, and they stamp the True Sun's story as impudently, villainously absurd. It is obviously intended to cover wholesale fraud. Watch them well, Pennsylvania Whigs!

The Next Congress. Several journals publish lists of Members of Congress thus far elected, politically classified as Whig or Loco-Foco. We have not done so, believing such classification unsafe and deceptive .-For example : South Carolina is put down as having chosen a full Loco-Foco Delegation, when two Columbiana.... (Holmes and Orr) of the seven Members are known to prefer Taylor to Cass, and we think one or two more care little for Cass. Vermont has yet chosen but one of her three Members; the remainder will be chosen (by a plurality vote) next Tuesday. In Ohio, the seat of Chas. Sweetzer, Loco, who is returned by 16 majority, will be contested by Hon. Daniel Duncan, Whig. Iowa returns two Loco Focos, but Daniel F. Miller, Whig, will contest the seat of Shepherd Leffler, who has the return, in consequence of the abstraction of the Mormon vote. The Loco-Focos organized Election Districts and appointed officers on purpose to get the Mormon vote; but, the Mormons having voted Whig, they stole the returns and burnt them .-We trust Mr. Miller will be able to establish his right to the seat.

"The Tribune maintained, one month before the Election of '44 that New York would give City full 20,000 majority." True San. B Will you just attempt to proce that, neighbor ! It reads to us like a - mistake.

We are again compelled to omit Mr. W.

The probable appearance of the Government in the Money market before the 20th of June next, as a borrower of from $25.000,000 to $40,000,000 is a consideration of the greatest interest

During the three months of the next session, Congress must provide the means for paying off this balsince at least 87,390,000. A loan is the only recourse, a loan of $30,000,000. I have heard it whispered that Mr. Walker has admitted the absolute necessity of a very large loan. It has become a fixed fact Finan ciering cannot get round it. And the prospect is a dismal one. I have noticed the rumor that he is anxious to escape the deluge, and begins already to cast longing glances toward Missisppi, which he looks upon as his only political Ararat. I believe Mr. Walker to be too bold a man to attempt such a retreat. But I have heard the rumor.

against danger.

The coolest piece of impudence I have heard of lately on the part of the ladrones here, which beats the robbery of Gen. Scott's Chaplain, Rev. Mr. McCarty, all hollow, was the robbery of an Englishman on the passe yesterday at 2 o'clock, of his horse, by two Mexicans. The best of the joke is that the two fellows rode by the owner's house immediately after, with the horse and accourtements. I close here; if anything new occurs before the departure of the courier you shall have it.

THE FIRE IN ALEXANDRIA -The clerk of the

THE FIRE IN ALEXANDRIA.—The clerk of the steamer St. Helena, has favored us with the following description of the Fire at Alexandria, La. of which he was an eye witness: The town of Alexandria on Red River, parish of Rapides, was visited by a most destructive fire on Wednesday the Isth inst about II o'clock P. M. The fire it is supposed originated in Mr. O. W. Nalley's bakery, and there being a high wind at the time, it soon spread to the adjoining buildings raging up and down Front and Second sts. and consuming about seventy buildings. The principal sufferers are Messrs. S. Mead. S. A. Henarie, O. W. Nally, D. E. Goodwin, Jacob Walker, J. McFreely, Lawrence Febrer, Riossat, H. M. Hams and R. Chew. Among the buildings burnt was the Canal Bank, [the chest containing the money and papers of the bank was spened after the lite and all found sale,] the Post Office with letters, &c. totally destroyed. A number of families have lost their all, who but a few days since were comfortably provided for, thus leaving them penniless and houseless, Half the town is in ashes, and had it not been for a timely shower of rain, the whole town would have been consumed, as there was no fire engine nor any other means by which it could be arrested. The destruction of property is immense, as no one was insured. Those who were able to remove a portion of their effects. &c. who were able to remove a portion of their effects, &c. to the bank of the river, had them destroyed by sparks falling on them. The two Mistresses B, proceeded to the Judy of their dwelling, and there, with blackets, which they spread over the roof, and pails of water handed them, saved the dwelling. [N. O. Pic. Oct. 20. The other "Resuttes of the Opera" will be distributed about the sofas with strict reference to the tout ensemble.

As to the Opera Itself, and its success, that seems to he a question already decided favorably. Any enterstarting both the admiration and the confidence of that public, can scarcely fail. Now, our admiration for the talian Opera is of course unbounded-while our confidence in the managerial capacities of Mr. Fry are unlimited. Therefore, it is as clear as Truffi's aweetest note that the Opera must succeed.
